POWER SYSTEMS® PARTNERS WITH PRO TRIATHLETE

Andrew Drobeck Representing Power Systems on the Pro Triathlete Circuit

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – [May 22, 2015] – Power Systems is proud to announce the sponsorship of Elite Triathlete Andrew Drobeck for the 2015 race season. Drobeck is in his second year of racing in the professional division and also serves as a firefighter with the Missoula Fire Department in Missoula, MT. He entered the triathlon scene in 2009 and became a Pro in 2014. During his career, he has 15 1st Place finishes. During his first year as a Pro, Drobeck recorded top 10 finishes in all seven of his 2014 races, including two Second place finishes in the Pacific Crest Triathlon (June, 2014) and The Utah Half (August, 2014). Drobeck is currently scheduled to race in five races in the 2015 season, including three halves and two fulls.

This past weekend, Drobeck competed in the 2015 Challenge Knoxville Half, finishing 13th out of fifty-six athletes in the Pro field with an overall time of 04:17:10. He next travels to Sunriver, OR for the Pacific Crest Long Course (70.3) on June 27, 2015.
