POWER SYSTEMS® LAUNCHES ULTIMATE HOME GYM AND ULTIMATE FACILITY UPGRADE SWEEPSTAKES

Grand Prize Winners to Receive $15,000 in Fitness Equipment and Accessories

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – [March 20, 2014] – Just in time for Spring, Power Systems, the nation’s leading provider of fitness equipment and accessories, is launching an Ultimate Home Gym and an Ultimate Facility Upgrade Sweepstakes now through May 31, 2014. To enter, participants can simply go to 5kgym.com or 10kgym.com and fill out an entry form for the chance to win $5,000 in products for a home gym or $10,000 in facility upgrades. One lucky individual and one lucky facility will be randomly drawn on Saturday, June 1, 2014 to receive the grand prizes. For more details and official rules, please visit powersystems.com or facebook.com/powersystemsinc.

“The Ultimate Home Gym and Ultimate Facility Upgrade Sweepstakes are a great way to introduce our company to first-timers and to remind fitness enthusiasts across the country what we have to offer,” said Julie Pauletto, President of Power Systems. “We see fitness differently and believe it’s for everyone, and we want to share this vision with as many customers as possible. What better way to get started than by giving away $15,000 in new equipment and accessories.”

Note: Participation in the Power Systems $10,000 Ultimate Facility Upgrade Sweepstakes is open to any licensed business that provides training or exercise equipment in return for a fee or membership; government or military training facilities; and private or public schools. Qualifying facilities are encouraged to have customers, family, friends, and employees enter the Sweepstakes on their behalf.
